

Rishi Tea is proud to announce winning seven First Place awards at the 2008 World Tea Championship!

This international competition was part of this year's World Tea Expo and is the first industry-wide competition for Specialty Tea.

Rishi was the only company to win First Place with organic teas. Help us celebrate a victory for the organic tea movement. We share this honor with the farmers and artisans at origin who believe in organic and sustainable practices. Without your support, none of this would have been possible.

This year's event reinforces our mission: To offer the best artisan teas of each season direct from the garden to you, and to be the benchmark for quality in organic.

And the winners are...
